TODAY

Hospital to host open house to celebrate completion of $22 million expansion

Southwest Medical Center invites all new residents to attend the grand opening of Liberal's new hospital facilities on Friday. After breaking ground in Fall 2010, the building provides residents the construction of the Medical Office Building, optimal infrastructure, and an expanded emergency room, laboratory and diagnostic imaging space to include a new 1.5 Tesla MRI.

Opening remarks and a ribbon cutting will take place outside the hospital at 11:00 a.m. Guided tours through Southwest Medical Center and the Medical Office Building will be available from noon through 2 p.m.

Lunch and entertainment will also be provided for visitors starting at 12:00 p.m.

FRIDAY
