

Louis Arnold Nobles, 77, died Thursday, Jan. 10, 2013, in Stillwater, Okla.

He was born Nov. 2, 1935, in Newton.

He married Marlena Tarrell March 22, 2008, in Borger, Texas. She survives.

He graduated from Newton High School in the early 1950s, and he later found a position as a parts manager for Chrysler Corner.

He enjoyed woodworking and crafting. He was also an avid traveler and a connoisseur of wines. He enjoyed touring wineries. He was involved in the LCEF.

He is also survived by his brother, Herbert Nobles of Florida; and sister, Wilda M. Arnold, Stillwater, Okla.

He was preceded in death by his parents and two sisters, LaVonne and Twila.

o Memorial service will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Zion Lutheran Church with Pastor Frank Kinast officiating.

Memorials are suggested to the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, Oklahoma Chapter at 500 N. Broadway Ave. No. 250, Oklahoma City, OK 73102.

Condolences may be sent and an online obituary viewed by visiting www.strodefh.com.

