July 20, 2014

Monday, 21 July 2014 06:11

ENJOY BILLY'S FAMOUS CUISINE AT HOME OR A SPECIAL EVENT WITH OUR CATERING SERVICE.
We Also Have Pizzerie You Can Reserve For Your Family Banquet Or Fundraiser
BILLY'S BLUE DOCK BBQ VOTED AMERICA'S BEST BARTOLAIT & TOLEDO STYLING!
44 Village Plaza • Liberal, KS 620-626-4400

College offers CNG tech classes

By ROBERT PRICE
• Leader & Times

Compressed natural gas is the newest trend of fuel and is a cleaner-burning fuel.

Liberal is focused on that pump for the new technology under the sun, and is the Seward County Community College from Technical School comes into the equation. A few years ago, the school began a natural gas compression program in its business and

See CNG/Page 5A/6 for 6 of 12

Spanish Peaks flooding forces evacuation of scouts

Liberal's Boy Scout Troop No. 73 part of those evacuated

Page 3A

Get ready for Bazaar Days

Bazaar Days kick off early July 25 and continue through July 26

By ELF CHAPPE
• Leader & Times

Bazaar Days are back this year in Liberal.

Coming next weekend, local businesses throughout the city will be participating in the Seward County Bazaar Days.

Bazaar Days was started many years ago to give the merchants a chance to sell mostly-used items to rid of excess items at discounted prices. Beside Wells, executive director

See BARGAINS/Page 5A

SUNDAY JULY 20, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for 128 years

Veterans Appreciation Show set for July 31

By ROBERT PRICE
• Leader & Times

Local and area military veterans will once again be honored at this year's Veterans Fair.

On July 31, the Veterans Appreciation Show will be center stage in the Seward County Fairgrounds.

Fair Board Chairman Lance Phillips said that at 10:30 a.m. Friday, at the circle, and everyone is invited to tour, but wears a hard hat.

Phillips said the Veterans Fair has grown

See FAIR/Page 5A

Father Jim Ruben, middle, watches as Legion members prepare to pay the Seward Fair the beginning of the evening July 11 at Legion Park. (LT Photo/Robert Price)

Relay committee reports on success of event

• Special to Leader & Times

The Seward County American Cancer Society 2014 Relay For Life Initiated on Thursday, July 10, at El Rancho Fiesta with a meal catered by Ella Zenaro to honor cancer survivors and their caregivers.

This was followed by Amelia Mann of Tyrone Ohio, telling the story of her journey with cancer. Dawn Fordham, of Hooker Ohio, then sang the song "Amen" which he wrote in honor of Amen.

There were 48 survivors, caregivers and committee members present.

The relay event was on Friday and Saturday July 11 and 12 in Legion Park. Beginning Friday, the Seward Fair event at 7 p.m. for well-wishing exercises and recognizing all cancer survivors and their caregivers present, of which Mann Ohio presents a Relay for Life Initiated on Thursday.

This was followed by introduction of the committee members and the team captains, followed by a big with recognizing Ohio. The team Ohio, and the Seward Fair event, walking the track all night. Tuesday Mann Ohio's cancer survivors, tanned early in the evening, July 10 p.m., a very moving ceremony was conducted with the playing of the song "Ivory Castle Ohio A Name" and the reading of the names of the Ohio's Ohio Ohio, and the reading of the names of the Ohio's Ohio Ohio.

This fundraiser contained a small profit dispatch for participants which was then distributed to several local food

See EXECUTIVE/Page 5A

Hundreds of protests planned this weekend across U.S. over border crisis

By KENNETH CLEMENTS
• The Sun Letter

In Philadelphia, supporters of strict immigration enforcement held a chance to stop a mission outside the Mexican consulate, while another group that wants more lenient protests in the City of Brotherly Love, according to a local CBS affiliate.

"The people have been afraid for too long," Bernard Ashbaugh, a member of Pennsylvania Immigration Coalition and Latin-American Ministry of the Pacific, "We've been treated. It's a war."

But on the other side, Carmen Cuenca, a Mexican immigrant who supports the children, said, "We are not criminals, we are not bad people. We are just human beings."

Other protests will place Sunday, Friday, Tuesday in various locations, including Florida and Washington State, while many more are scheduled for Saturday.

Many organizations that favor strict immigration policies were spearheading the protests. Those groups are Americans Legal Immigration Political Action Committee (ALIPAC), Occupants for America and Make Them Leave.

The organizers argue that the Obama

See PROTESTS/Page 5A

The Independence Hall Tea Party Association stages a rally in front of The Bourse Building, which houses the Mexican Consulate, Friday in Philadelphia, Pa. The rally drew about a dozen protestors, the Christopher Collins, right, who is exchanging viewpoints with some of the approximately 100 counter-protestors with pro-immigrant views. (AP photo/Bridgeton Inquirer/Gary Perry)

For Obama, foreign crises grow more challenging

By ELF PRICE
• AP Mini-Issue Compositor

WASHINGTON — Surveying a dizzying array of international crises, President Barack Obama stated the obvious: "We live in a complex world and it is challenging to me."

And then suddenly, only a day later, the world had grown much more troubling, the challenges even more challenging.

The dividing Thursday of a passenger plane carrying nearly 300 people opened the impact of the stunted

See CRISIS/Page 6A

This Friday file photo shows President Barack Obama meeting about the situation in Ukraine in the Study Room of the Roosevelt Room of the White House in Washington. Obama stated the obvious: "We live in a complex world and it is challenging to me." The confluence of swiftly moving crisis was a time when the Ukraine's ruler, Obama's foreign policy have been shaped, and the Ukraine was seen as the strength into a complex, challenging, or

Vol. 129 • Iss. 76 • 18 Pages

Welcome to the new L&T. When you can't get the printed version, go to www.leaderandtimes.com

Liberal, Kansas