

Lonetta M. Carlile, 79, died Monday April 15, 2013, in Liberal.

She was born Jan. 5, 1934, to Joseph and Cecilia (Thimmesch) Reichenberger in Nashville, Kan.

She married Bernard E. Carlile May 12, 1962, in Las Vegas. He preceded her in death.

She graduated from Sharon High School in 1951 and attended Wichita Business School.

She was a member of the St. Anthony Altar Society and was a Eucharistic Minister for 24 years.

She is survived by two step-children, Diana Elliott and husband, Rick, Liberal, and James Carlile and wife, Theresa, Liberal; two brothers, Dr. Jerome Reichenberger, Phoenix, and Donovan Reichenberger, Alva, Okla.; two sisters, Oringa McGuire, Alva, and Rose Soptic and husband, Robert, Roeland Park; seven grandchildren, Christopher Ford and wife, Marieka, Liberal, Bret Ford and fiancée, Mikala, Marie Watt, Denver, Preston Ford and wife, Lacey, Topeka, Kaitlin Carlile, Liberal, Tracie Cross, Rock Springs, Wyo., Chad Osier, Cheyenne, Wyo., and Ashley Osier, Great Bend; five great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

She was also preceded in death by her parents, stepdaughters, Debra Osier and Rhonda Carlile and brother, Cletus Reichenberger.

• Memorial rosary service will be at 7 p.m. Friday at St. Anthony Catholic Church of Padua in Liberal.

Memorial mass services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at St. Anthony Catholic Church of Padua in Liberal.

Private burial will take place.

In lieu of flowers, memorials are suggested to either the St. Anthony Catholic Church Repair Fund or American Cancer Society, both in the care of Miller Mortuary.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.millermortuary.net.