

Lloyd Jones, Sr., 72, died Monday, June 24, 2013, at his home in Hugoton. He was born March 6, 1941, to John Newton Jones and E. Lucille Thomas in Holly Creek, Okla.

He married Patricia L. Carlton Dec. 27, 1959, in Spearman, Texas. She survives.

He attended grade school in Springfield and high school in Keys, Okla. He later attended Panhandle State University in Goodwell, Okla.

He worked as a mechanic and service manager for Miller Motors, Langston Buick and Jim Moore Buick before opening his own mechanic shop in Guymon. He also drove a truck with his wife.

He attended the United Methodist Church in Hugoton until his health became an issue.

Other survivors include two sons, Lloyd, Jr., and wife, Wanda, Newark, Calif., and Johnny and wife, Kristy, Hugoton; daughter, Dianna Madrid and husband, Joe Fred, Colorado Springs, Colo.; one brother, Richard Turnbull and wife, Theresa of Florida; one sister, Jo Dean Bliss, Cincinnati; five grandchildren, Brandon and wife, Kristi, Alameda, Ga., Robert and wife, Cassandra, Landers, Calif., Keisha Martin and husband, T.P., Wichita; Braley Singleterry and husband, Trevor Bowers, Goodwell, and Zachary of the home; six great-grandchildren, Ethan, Koli, Kaylie, Chevy, Ayden and Parker; brother-in-law Paul E. Carlton and wife, Donna, Arlington, Texas; two sisters-in-law, Barbara David, Guymon, and Cherry Gosner, Springfield; and many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, brother, sisters, grandparents, uncles and aunts.

• Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Thursday at the United Methodist Church in Hugoton with Harry Cross presiding.

Burial will follow at the Hugoton Cemetery.

Memorials are suggested to Pheasant Heaven and may be mailed to P.O. Box 308, Hugoton, KS 67951 or in care of Paul's Funeral Home, Box 236, Hugoton, KS 67951.