A Liberal woman and a Sublette man were injured in a two-car crash one minute into the new year early Friday morning.

James Cody Parr, 35, Sublette, was stopped at a red light on U.S. Highway 54 waiting to turn left onto U.S. Highway 83 when he was rear ended, according to a report from the Kansas Highway Patrol.

Parr's 2009 Ford passenger car was struck by a 2003 Mitsubishi driven by Ermalinda Dolores Melton, 42, Liberal, according to the report.

Both Parr and Melton were transported to Southwest Medical Center for treatment.

Both were also using their seat belts, according to the KHP.
