

Patricia Rodriguez-Bear shows the pose she uses in the advertising campaign she is featured in for ConAgra. She stressed to students they can do anything they want if they want it bad enough and are willing to work hard for it – and it all starts with education. L&T photo/Chris Linenbroker

Liberal High School graduate Patricia Rodriguez-Bear returns home to give students insights on the modern corporate world

By CHRIS LINENBROKER • Leader & Times Patricia Rodriguez-Bear graduated from Liberal High School in the Class of 2004. She then went on to get an associate’s degree of science from Seward County Community College/Area Technical School in 2005.

She continued her education at Kansas State University earning a bachelor’s degree in agricultural business, then a master’s in business administration.

