Sign-ups start Jan. 30

This year's Pancake Day races on Feb. 16 will feature a new age category: all youths ages 14 to 18 are invited to enter the new youth division, with sign-ups set for Jan. 30 through Feb. 6 at the Tourist Information Center.

Pancake Day is all about community participation, and since last year's addition of more races for the younger kids was a huge success, organizers have decided to offer a chance for older teenagers to participate as well.

"We got nothing but positive feedback on the addition of more kids' categories last year, and everything went really smoothly," Ray Petty, Pancake Day Race co-chairman, said.

The new youth division will feature at least two races, one for men and one for women. The number of racers who sign up will determine how many age categories the racers will be grouped into.

The youth division race will be a 75-yard dash and will take place immediately after the children's races conclude.

"Pancake Day is a school holiday, and we have had increasing interest by high school students who want to race, so we are hoping for great participation," said Jan Nondorf, Pancake Day
