A quilt top sits on the back of a couch at the home of Margaret Prentice in Liberal. The top was found by her daughter, Chris McCabe, who lives in San Antonio and found the top at an antique fair in Round Top, Texas. The quilt is has 104 names of women living in Liberal in 1935. The women stitched each star by hand, piecing printed diamonds into an orderly geometric pattern. Butter-yellow anchored the differently hued stars, some pastel, some intense. Finally, they added their names, 104 in all, embroidered in colored thread on white cotton.

Quilt presented to Pauline Wright, Dec. 25, 1935, with these names
