Liberal police officers were called to an accident around 4:26 p.m. Thursday at Seventh and Kansas. Liberal Police Department Capt. Pat McClurg said at the time of the accident, a tan 1995 Buick Park Avenue was turning west from Kansas on to Seventh when a blue 2002 Pontiac Grand Am was going south on Kansas. McClurg said the driver of the Grand Am, a 24-year-old female, was cited for running a red light and causing the accident. The wreck was initially dispatched as an injury accident, but both the Grand Am driver and Park Avenue driver, a 64-year-old female, refused transport to the hospital. L&T photo/Robert Pierce
