

Dorothy goes to DC

Friday, 21 June 2013 11:59

Liberal's Dorothys are currently in Washington, D.C. to meet lawmakers and represent Liberal while touring the historic landmarks in the nation's capital. Today, the Dorothys are going to see the ruby red slippers in the Smithsonian Institute as well as visit the White House and the Holocaust museum. "These girls have been great ambassadors," Land of Oz Executive Director JoAnne Mansell said. Courtesy photo
