

Shoppers mull over sale items earlier today in downtown Liberal as Bazaar Days kicked off with 26 participating retail stores across Liberal taking part in the annual event, where shoppers can sometimes find discounts up to 70 percent. People who purchase at one of the participating stores can turn in their receipt at the Chamber of Commerce and be part of a drawing Saturday where numerous gift cards will be given away. The sale goes on through tomorrow as well.
L&T photo/Giseelle Arredondo