

A special night for veterans

Wednesday, 07 August 2013 11:58

ABOVE: Liberal resident and Patriot Guard Rider Bob Armstrong leads a convoy of motorcycles around the race track Friday evening at Seward County Fairgrounds as the Liberal High School Drum Line performs at the start of the Veterans Appreciation Show put on by the fair board.

LEFT: Peggy Luck, left, and other women with the Quilts of Valor organization place a special quilt around the shoulders of 87-year-old Lewis Armstrong, a World War II veteran who served in the Army Air Force in New Guinea and the Philippines. The quilt was given to Armstrong to honor his service to his country. Photos courtesy of Floyd Watson