At 11:10 a.m. Wednesday, emergency responders were called to Six Points for a report of an injury accident, according to a statement released by Liberal Police Capt. Pat McClurg. Six Points is the intersection of east U.S. Highway 54, U.S. Hwy. 83 by-pass and Railroad Street and Bluebell Road. "Investigating officers learned that a silver, 2011 Hyundai Sonata driven by a 28-year-old female was stopped at the light facing westbound on Hwy. 54 when an orange and white, 2004 Ford E250 van driven by a 20-year-old male rear ended the Sonata," McClurg reported. "A 7-year-old male passenger in the Sonata was transported to Southwest Medical Center by Seward County EMS with minor injuries. The driver of the van was issued a citation for inattentive driving."
