- Special to the Leader & Times

People will soon have the chance to follow The Yellow Brick Road to the bi-annual OzFest in Liberal, sponsored by Dorothy's House and the Land of Oz on Saturday. The whole family will find a magical place "where troubles melt like lemon drops," with contests, entertainment, activities and games.

One of the highlights of the day will be Glenda and Mike Mann, a husband-and-wife team with a unique profession. They combine illusions, ventriloquism and comedy to entertain and inform.

The Manns have appeared throughout the United States in state fairs, community festivals, school assemblies, libraries, churches and corporate meetings.

Glenda is the magician. She is a member of the International Brotherhood of Magicians and has studied under some of the greatest magicians, including Harry Blackstone Jr. Glenda presents polished magical routines that quickly gain the attention of adults as well as children.

Mike, the ventriloquist, humorously converses with different puppets. He not only performs comedy routines, but ad-libs throughout the program. His human ventriloquist routine turns anyone into a puppet.

The Manns' programs are for the entire family. Come and enjoy this unique and original entertainment. The Magic Show will start at 2 p.m. in the big tent on the grounds of Dorothy's House.

Here are the additional performers and their scheduled times to entertain:
