

Deputy Ziggy fights against drugs in Sherman County, Texas

By NANCY KLETECKA

- Special to the Leader & Times

STRATFORD, Texas – He may be only 4-years-old and weigh in at 111 pounds – but the new deputy in Sherman County, Texas, has a nose for justice – literally.

Deputy Ziggy, a Dutch Shepherd, recently joined the ranks of the Sherman County Sheriff's Office as its very first K-9 officer.

Ziggy was brought on board through the tenacity and determination of his new handler, sheriff Joe Powell and it has cost the taxpayers of Sherman County exactly – nothing.

Texas deputy has a 'nose' for crime

Saturday, 02 November 2013 10:01

---

[REDACTED]