

Judges announce Christmas Parade entry winners

Monday, 16 December 2013 12:52

ABOVE: This float by the NOVA Youth Group from Church For All Nations won the Judge's Choice of $200 from sponsor Mortgages Unlimited at Saturday's Leader & Times 2013 Christmas Parade. L&T photo/Rober Pierce

LEFT: The float entered by West Kan Apartments won $100, which was sponsored by First National Bank. L&T photo/Giseelle Arredondo

Parade float winners take home more than $800

- L&T staff report

Judges announce Christmas Parade entry winners

Monday, 16 December 2013 12:52

Grand Champion went to Cowboy's Custom Cabinets, which earned $250 from sponsor Al Shank Insurance.

Mortgages Unlimited sponsored the Home for the Holidays Judges Choice which paid $200 to the NOVA Youth Group.

Al Shank also sponsored the Kids Entry prize of $100 which went to the Danza Apache Dancers from St. Anthony's Church.

The $100 Busy Bee Kids entry sponsored by First National Bank was given to the Leader & Times News in Education entry.

First National Bank also sponsored $100 for the Best Illumination category, which went to WestKan Apartments.

The Heritage Award for best non-profit went to The Matachines Dancers who won $75.

The Bank of Beaver City sponsored $50 for the Best Automobile, which was won by Richard Layman for his 1947 Ford.

Cross Roads won Best Animal category and $50 from the Leader & Times.

The "Rock On" Award of a basket with gift certificates and other surprises from the downtown businesses went to the Rotary Club for most creative.

Judges announce Christmas Parade entry winners

Monday, 16 December 2013 12:52

The volunteer judges were Stanley Cordova, Jean Ann Foster, Jo Anne Mansell, Frank Challis and James Jackson.