

L&T staff report

Citizens for Responsible Growth will host a meeting at 6 p.m. March 20 at the Rock Island Depot to provide information about the upcoming school bond issue.

The meeting is open to the public.

School district representatives will provide a 20-minute presentation outlining the proposal, and the Citizens for Responsible Growth will discuss how the public directed the plan.

After the presentations, questions will be taken from those who attend.