

Raising money for miracles

Monday, 01 March 2010 14:30

---

ABOVE: People check out all the items on the silent auction tables Saturday night at the fundraiser for Southwest Miracles, a new non-profit organization that helps people with certain needs. LEFT: Justin Hamlin of Moscow spins his wife, Nikole, around the dance floor Saturday evening at the Seward County Ag Building. The fundraiser, put on by Southwest Miracles, included a barbecue meal provided by Billy's Mexican Bar and Q, a silent auction with goodies from numerous local businesses, door prizes and live music by the band Clear Creek. Around 300 people attended the fundraiser. Daily Leader photos/Robert Pierce