

Welcome to the first day of Spring on the High Plains

Saturday, 20 March 2010 11:29

Citizens awoke Saturday morning in Liberal to cold, gray skies and a dusting of snow with temperatures in the low 30s and wind chills in the low 20s. The vernal equinox occurred Saturday, where the hours of daylight and darkness are equal, also known as the first day of spring. Daily Leader photo/Larry Phillips
