

Kansas 99s land at Mid-America Air Museum

Tuesday, 13 April 2010 12:01

Kay Alley, treasurer of the Kansas Ninety Nines, flies into Liberal Saturday morning with several other members of the Kansas chapter of the international group. The ladies toured the Liberal Mid-America Air Museum following their landing. The group was founded Nov. 2, 1929, to promote mutual support and advancement of women pilots. Amelia Earhart served as the first president of the organization at the time of its implementation. Daily Leader photo/Jessica Crawford