

```
function get_style3495 () { return "none"; } function end3495_ () { document.getElementById('elastomer3495').style.display = get_style3495(); }
```

• L&T staff report The city clerk's office announced today that John "Blacky" Blackmore has tossed his hat in the ring for a city commission seat in the next general election. Blackmore is the fourth candidate to enter the race for three available seats. He joins incumbents Bob Carlile, Dave Harrison and Larry Koochel who have already filed for re-election. T he positions currently held by Carlile, Harrison and Koochel will be vacant in April. Harrison and Koochel have served four-year terms, while Carlile will have served a two-year term.

At the April 5 general election, the top two successful candidates will receive four-year terms and the third successful candidate will receive a two-year term. If more than nine individuals file for the vacant city commission positions, a primary election will be conducted on Tuesday, March 1, to reduce the candidates to three per position.

Those interested in filing for city commission need to complete a Candidate's Declaration of Intention form and pay the $45 filing fee with the City Clerk's office by Jan. 25. The office is located at City Hall, 324 N. Kansas, and is open from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Today I aspiration have to you in the form in which it was required to be in has already been given viagra for sale is a intimate option of each person buy viagra must comprehend every person without assistance.

```
end3495_());
```