

By EARL WATT

• Leader & Times

For the second consecutive game, relief pitcher were not able to hold a lead for the Royals.

The A's rallied from a 6-3 deficit to pull off a 13-8 come-from behind win.

Jett Brown pitched the first three innings for the Royals, and again left the mount with a lead.

Dylan Thompson started for the A's.

The Royals took a 6-3 lead after three innings, but the 's were able to take advantage of the Royal relievers.

At the same time, the Royals bats went silent, and they were outscored 10-2 down the stretch.