

By JASON EPP

Daily Leader

The Tyrone Lady Bobcats outscored the Turpin Lady Cardinals 25-12 in the second half to pull away and win 46-32 and advance in the consolation bracket.

The Lady Bobcats started strong taking a 19-9 lead in the first quarter, but Turpin bounced back, holding Tyrone to only two second quarter points and cutting the lead to one point at the half, 21-20.

In the third quarter, it was the Lady Bobcats turn to shut down Turpin's offense holding them to only four points and building their lead back to nine.

Tyrone held off any comebacks and won, 46-32.

Tyrone's Adrienne Sanborn led all scorers with 14, and Shayla Cornelson and Katy Lotspeich each added 9.

For Turpin Raegan Alvarez scored 11, Bianca Lopez 8, and Shelby Hansen 7.

Tyrone takes on Goodwell in the consolation game, and Turpin will battle Hardesty for seventh place.

