Liberal faces Wichita West for tourney title

Daily Leader staff report

It took three quarters Friday in Colby before the Redskins could get over the hump against McCook.

After chasing McCook in the third, Liberal was able to build a fourth quarter lead to earn a 39-26 win in a battle of two defensive-minded teams.

The win advanced Liberal to the championship game of the Colby Orange and Black Classic.

The Redskins faced Wichita West late Saturday. The Pioneers made it to the title game by knocking off Ulysses 47-37.
