marched the ball down 57 down the field for a touchdown in a seven-play, 57-yard drive to go up 7-0.

Towards the end of the first quarter, Sublette had a prime opportunity to get on the board after recovering a fumble by Bernabe on the Mustangs 38. The Larks got as far as the 6 before fumbling the ball themselves, and Heights recovered.

The Mustangs then put together the most impressive drive of the game, putting together a 5-play, 94-yard drive in just over two minutes. Bernabe capped the drive off with a 63-yard pass to Brandon Kisner for a touchdown to open the second quarter, and Heights was up 14-0.

Later in the second, Chavez took the ball into the endzone again on a five-yard run to give the Heights a 21-0 lead heading into halftime.

The second half started the same way the first ended. The Mustangs took the ball 55 yards down the field, and took a 27-0 lead on a six-yard run by Saul Sanchez on the opening drive.

On the ensuing Sublette possession, Heights forced a three-and-out, and the Larks were forced to punt again. This time Saudy Rodriguez broke through the line, and came up with a big block, setting the Mustangs up at the Larks 30 yard line.

Three plays later Chavez broke loose on a 27-yard run for his second touchdown of the game, and Heights extended the lead to 34-0.

The Larks would eventually find their way into the endzone in the fourth quarter when their quarterback ran it in from ten yards out to make it 34-6.

Not to be outdone, the Mustangs Richard Navarette scored on a 19-yard run, and it was a 41-6 ballgame.
