

L&T staff report

The West Warriors 7th grade volleyball team travelled to Garden City yesterday, and walked away with three wins in four matches.

The lone loss came to Horace Good, 22-20, 17-21 and 7-15.

Kayleah Chaloupek had 11 serves in the match with Horace Good.

Kaylee Adams came up big in a win over Hugoton, stringing together 13 straight serves at one point.

The Warriors had to overcome a couple of injuries over the course of the night.

Katiara Polvon jammed her pinkie, but toughed it out, and played with the pain. Bayli Crosier dealt with some back problems, but Ash-Leigh Antrim stepped up to make the transition over to the middle position.

The Warriors volleyball team is 7-1 on the season.
