Dodge City came out determined in the second half, keeping the South offense in check and scoreless in the third quarter. The Cardinals scored four points in the third to cut the South lead to 6-5.

Not long into the final quarter, Dodge City had grabbed the lead, and looked like they might steal the win in the final minutes.

Salinas hit 1-of-2 free throws late to tie the game at 7-7.

Down two in the final minute of play, Gomez got a layup to make it 9-9, and send the game to overtime.

The Cardinals gained control early in the extra period, and kept it to come away with the 15-12 win.

The Apaches were 8-of-12 from the charity stripe in the game.
