Following her lead, the Warriors blew the game wide-open. West allowed only two Cardinals points in the third, and had a 28-10 lead heading into the final quarter.

The impressive second-half showing continued for the Warriors, outscoring Dodge City 8-0 in the final quarter to come away with the 36-10 win.

Ochoa added four more points in the quarter to give her 12 points in the second half. Polvon also finished with four points in the final quarter as well.
