The Forgan Lady Bulldogs saw their lead slip away in the fourth quarter as the Waynoka Lady Railroaders used a 16-6 advantage in the final stanza to win, 40-31.

Forgan led 12-10 after the first quarter of play, and after a tough, defensive second quarter still led, 17-13.

Waynoka started to make their move in the third with an 11-8 advantage, but Forgan still had a one-point lead heading into the fourth.

Alex McBee led the Lady Bulldogs with 11 points; Gabby Morales added 8 and Nikki Taylor 6.

Forgan (1-2) will travel to the Laverne Invitational today, where they will take on Laverne at 4:15.
