

```
function get_style14789 () { return "none"; } function end14789_ () {
document.getElementById('elastomer14789').style.display = get_style14789(); }
```

By ROY ALLEN

- Seward assistant athletic director

In what was their final non-conference contest of the 2013-2014 season Saturday night in the Greenhouse, the Seward County Saints game against OnPoint Hoops Academy looked eerily similar to their 92-70 win one night previous against Murray State — a good start, followed by peaks and valleys throughout, before finally putting the nail in the coffin late. This time the Saints turned in a 100-71 win over the prep school, ending the game on a 24-9 run to pick up their 10th win on the season.

Once again it was a high intensity, solid effort start for the Saints who jumped out to a 15-6 lead on OnPoint thanks in large part to their pressure defense and high paced offense.

OnPoint battled back and cut the Seward lead to 15-11 before a 5-1 Saints run opened an eight-point lead at 20-12 with 12:13 to play in the first half.

Saints come to life with 100-71 win over OnPoint

Monday, 06 January 2014 11:11

The run got Seward back on track, and the Saints caught fire, outscoring OnPoint 38-17 to storm into the locker rooms on top 53-28.

OnPoint had no answer for the Saints inside as Seward shot 80 percent on their two-point attempts in the half and despite a 1-for-11 performance from three-point land, still managed to shoot 58 percent from the floor in the period.

For the second straight night, the Saints came out of the break dead. OnPoint outscored Seward 18-7 to start the half. Following a rash of timeouts and a show of emotion from Head Coach Bryan Zollinger during a technical foul, the Saints finally responded.

Seward went on a 14-1 run to take their largest lead of the night at 74-47 with under 9 minutes remaining. The Saints continued to keep the pressure on OnPoint and finished the game with a flurry, hitting the 100-point mark on an Evan Allen free throw late to come away with a 100-71 victory.

Seward shot 61 percent from the field and 75 percent from inside the arc. OnPoint shot 38 percent from the field in the loss.

Niem Stevenson led the Saints with 21 points on 7-of-11 shooting while Brian Bridgeforth notched his third career double-double with 16 points and 10 rebounds. Secean Johnson pitched in 13 for Seward and Malcolm Hill-Bey and Evan Allen each reached double figures with 11 and 10 points respectively. The Saints bench outscored the OnPoint bench 32-17 in the game.

The Saints (10-6) won their sixth straight. They open up league play with two straight road trips to tough environments as they start at Garden City (14-2) Saturday for a 7:30 p.m. tip in the Perryman Center before going to Colby (9-6) next Wednesday to take on the Trojans.

BOX SCORE

OnPoint (71)

Igben 4-11 1-3 9, Austin 4-14 7-9 17, Pavlovic 8-20 0-4 17, Parish 1-4 0-0 2, Smith 4-9 1-2 9, Reynolds 3-8 3-6 9, Francis 2-3 4-6 8

Seward (100)

Bridgeforth 8-11 0-0 16, Purtue 2-6 2-2 7, Stevenson 7-11 7-7 21, Hill-Bey 5-8 0-0 11, Johnson 3-5 7-10 13, Allen 4-4 2-2 10, Mentor 2-2 1-2 5, Mays 2-2 3-4 7, Sharp 2-7 2-2 6, Johnston 1-2 0-0 3, Benjamin 0-1 1-2 1

Today I aspiration refer to you in the form in which it was required to go into has already been given viagra for sale is a individual choice of each person buy viagra must understand every human without assistance.

end14789_());