Leader & Times

The Tyrone Lady Bobcats took care of business in the first round of the Fargo Invitational with a 51-28 win over Freedom.

Tyrone jumped out to a 15-6 lead in the first quarter and never looked back.

Rayna Wall had her top scoring game of the year with 29 points, including 17 in the second half.

But it was not just offense that got it done for the Lady Bobcats. Tyrone never allowed Freedom to score more than nine in any quarter.

Tyrone led 23-12 at half, and 36-21 after three.

A 15-7 advantage in the fourth gave the Lady Bobcats the 23-point win.

Tyrone advances to take on the winner of the Fargo-Clinton JV game tonight at 7.

Balko also advanced with an easy 48-18 win over Cheyenne-Reydon.

Balko led 17-4 after one quarter and 29-8 at half.

Madison Dearmin scored 18 for the Lady Bison.

Balko faces the Fort Supply-Wesleyan Christian winner today.
