It was over before they had a chance to recover.

The Texhoma Lady Red Devils jumped all over the Beaver Lady Dusters with a 19-4 first quarter on their way to a 51-34 win.

Already trailing by 15 after the first quarter of play, the Lady Dusters regrouped in the second quarter and gained a 13-11 advantage. The Lady Dusters still trailed big, 30-17.

Texhoma increased their lead in the third to 17 (40-23), and held steady the rest of the way.

Jacinda Balderrama was the only Duster in double figures with 11 points.

Beaver (9-6) travels to Turpin, Tuesday.
