A strong first quarter lifted the West Warriors over Dodge City Middle Monday, 30-26.

The Warriors jumped out to an early 11-2 lead and had to hold on late for the win.

Dodge City rallied to narrow the score to 17-15 at half.

Both teams struggled in the third quarter, and the Warriors were able to take a 21-17 lead into the fourth quarter. West and Dodge kept pace in the final period, both scoring nine, and the Warriors won, 30-26. Cesar Burciaga led the Warriors with 10 points.
