Eleven players scored and scored often as the Meade Lady Buffaloes cruised to a 74-32 win over Syracuse.

Jaylin Stapleton led the way with 17 points; Tarah Wiens added 12, and Bailey Olvera 10 to lead Meade.

Meade jumped out to a 16-8 lead in the first quarter, and were up by double-digits by half, 31-19.

The Lady Buffaloes cast away any doubts of a Syracuse come-from-behind win by outscoring Syracuse 23-10 in the third.

Meade put the final nail in the coffin with a 20-3 fourth quarter.

Meade (15-4) will host Sublette tomorrow at 6 pm in the first round of sub-state.
