

By JASON EPP

Leader & Times

Meade's Austin Jansonius shot a 72, five strokes better than any other golfer to claim the individual title at the Southwestern Height Invitational in Plains. Two other Buffalo golfers finished in the top 15 to help claim the team title as well. Morgan Davis shot an 89, good enough for tenth; Derek Foster was 15th with a 94.

Southwestern Heights finished 8th as a team. Garrett Compton finished with a 107.