

Cards stay perfect with shutout

Tuesday, 06 May 2014 10:39

---

Ulisses Rivera tags out Baylor Roberts on an attempted steal Monday in a Liberal Cal Ripken League game between the Cardinals and the Tigers at Rosel Field. The Cardinals won 13-0. The Cardinal defense was a key difference. Not only did Roberts get thrown out at second, but James Armstrong was thrown out trying to stretch a double into a triple with a perfect relay by the Cardinals from right field. The Cardinals are only three wins away from a perfect season while the Tigers lost their sixth straight after a 2-0 start to the year. Tonight, a battle for third takes place between the White Sox and the A's at Rosel Field.. L&T photo/Earl Watt