Seward County sophomore catcher Todd Glime has been named the KJCCC Player of the Week for his work in four Saints games last week. Glime hit .455 for the Saints in the week posting a pair of back to back multi-hit games.

Saturday against Garden City the sophomore backstop was 2 for 3 with a double and a home run.

He has caught 32 of the Saints 37 games thus far and had been the starting backstop for 12 straight games before getting a game off on Sunday against the Busters.

He has cut down 11 would-be base stealers this season and is second on the team with a .986 fielding percentage.
