

Special to the Daily Leader

Kayla Payton signed with Dodge City Community College to play basketball Thursday. Payton is a 5-foot, 5-inch senior guard who averaged 8.4 points per game as a senior.

She had 80 career threes and was named to the first team All-WAC. Payton will join Tameka Sanchez, Hannah Rotolo, and Latonya Gooden as three Lady Redskins who will be playing in the Jayhawk West next season.

Kayla Payton signs to play basketball for Dodge City Community College and was joined by here parents, Troy and Pam Payton. She was also joined by high school coach Shane Stout and Coach Price from Dodge City. Courtesy photo