Another game, another easy win for the Lady Bulldogs.

Forgan jumped all over Fargo to take a 21-1 lead at the end of the first quarter and five Lady Bulldogs scored in double figures on their way to a 75-39 drubbing of the Lady Bearcats.

Forgan continued to pour it on in the second quarter, outscoring Fargo 25-12 to take a 46-13 lead into the locker room. Kenzi Taylor was a force at the offensive end, scoring 12 in the first half.

Forgan increase their lead to 40 points in the third leading 66-26 to start the fourth before going on to win 75-39.

The Lady Bulldogs shot 61 percent (28-46) from 2-point range, and 30 percent from 3-point.

Senior point guard Jaci McGill led the Lady Bulldogs in scoring with 17, including three baskets from beyond the arch. Kenzi Taylor finished with 16, Lindsey Trippet 15, Samantha Leisher and Mirand Lopez each had 11, and Kaci Hall added 5.

Forgan is now 6-0 on the season and will travel to Laverne Friday to finish out the fall semester.
