

The Black History Community Choir performs songs Sunday at New Community Missionary Baptist Church during its Christmas concert.

Along with the community choir, the youth choir also performed holiday music, including “Silent Night” and “Joy to the World.” There was no charge for the concert; however, free will offerings were collected.

Daily Leader photo/Robert Pierce