School board nixes cruise

Board worried something bad could happen out of country
A school board has voted to cancel a planned cruise for students and faculty. The board members expressed concerns about the safety of the trip, particularly regarding the possibility of a terrorist attack or other security threats. The cruise was scheduled to take place in the coming months, but the board's decision has put a temporary halt to the plans.

AG Schmidt: February set another new concealed carry record
The Attorney General has announced that February 2013 has set a new record for concealed carry permits. The number of permits issued in February was significantly higher than in any other month of the year. This increase is attributed to a combination of factors, including a change in the application process and a growing awareness of the benefits of concealed carry.
