

Humpty Dumpty was pushed.
Slow Smokin' BBQ Home of the BIG WOODY!
44 Village Plaza • 704-944-4100 • 10000-100000

FIGHT NIGHT
Cape Fear
March 7, 2013
PAGE 1A

LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & news for 125 years

JACK CARLISLE
City Council member
Fights for transparency and accountability

THURSDAY MARCH 7, 2013 $1

Deputies arrest Liberal man while he was at county commission meeting Monday
New arrest and charges have been filed against a Liberal man who was arrested Monday at a county commission meeting. The man, identified as [Name], was arrested on charges of [Charges].

Statewide food drive under way
A statewide food drive is currently underway, with volunteers across the state collecting food for those in need. The drive is organized by [Organization] and aims to provide relief to families facing food insecurity.

SCC/ATS tuition, housing fees to slightly increase
The State Community College (SCC) and Atlantic Technical School (ATS) have announced that tuition and housing fees will increase slightly for the upcoming academic year. The increase is expected to be around [Percentage].

Texas layoffs mean more workers in Liberal
Due to layoffs at Cargill in Texas, more workers are expected to move to Liberal, Texas. This influx of workers is anticipated to have a positive impact on the local economy, including increased demand for housing and services.

That Liberal Band is bringing us 33rd annual fish fry today
The Liberal Band is hosting its 33rd annual fish fry today at the [Location]. The event is a popular community gathering and will feature live music, food, and social activities.

Today
[Local news and events for the day]

Saturday
[Local news and events for the weekend]