Heights students present Safe Dates program for local committee
L.A.M.C. program makes a difference

The Community Outreach Committee of the Heights Community Center presented a Safe Dates program to a local committee on Wednesday. The program, which is a national effort to reduce dating violence, was presented to the committee by a group of students from the Heights Community Center. The students, who are members of the L.A.M.C. program, presented a video and a presentation about the program. The committee members, including representatives from the Heights Community Center, the Heights Chamber of Commerce, and the Heights Police Department, listened to the presentation and discussed the program. The committee members expressed their support for the program and agreed to help promote it in the community.

Fast Facts on Dating Violence
Dating violence is a form of violence that occurs between people who are in a dating relationship. It can include physical, sexual, emotional, and psychological abuse. According to the National Center for Women & Justice, one in five women and one in ten men experience dating violence in their lifetime. Dating violence is a serious problem that can have long-term effects on the victims. It is important to recognize the signs of dating violence and seek help if you or someone you know is experiencing it.

Oklahoma authorities arrest Hooker City Superintendent for killing stray dogs last December
A Hooker City superintendent was arrested on charges of animal cruelty after he was found to have killed several stray dogs in the city last December. The superintendent, whose name was not disclosed, was arrested by Oklahoma authorities. The charges are related to the deaths of several stray dogs that were found in the city. The superintendent is accused of shooting the dogs and then disposing of their bodies. The case is currently being investigated by the Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation.

Sales sale to benefit Relay for Life
The American Cancer Society is holding a sales sale to benefit Relay for Life. The sale is taking place at the American Cancer Society store in the Heights area. The sale includes a variety of clothing, accessories, and home goods. The proceeds from the sale will be used to support the American Cancer Society's efforts to fight cancer. The sale is open to the public and is a great opportunity to support a good cause.
