Pratt Mayor Tom Long is expected to announce his plans to move to Oklahoma City in the next few weeks, according to a source familiar with the situation.

Long, who has served as mayor since 2008, is reportedly looking for a larger market and more economic opportunities for his family and business interests.

Long's move is expected to be a significant loss for Pratt, as he is a well-known figure in the community and has been instrumental in many of the city's development projects.
