City looks to utilize state program to increase housing
Housing Secretary Charles Waddell says there are up to 100,000 units available in the state.
The Lincoln City Commission is considering a resolution to utilize the state's Housing Choice Voucher program to increase the number of affordable housing units in the city. The resolution would allow the city to use state funds to subsidize the rent for low-income families who are currently on the waiting list for public housing. The city is currently on the waiting list for the state's Housing Choice Voucher program, which provides rental assistance to low-income families.
