Board plans hearing on $1.76 million budget increase

The Board of Directors of the City of Dodge is scheduled to hold a public hearing on the proposed 2013-2014 budget increase of $1.76 million. The hearing will be held on Monday, April 15, at 7:00 p.m. in the City Council Chamber. The proposed budget increase is necessary to cover the cost of the new hospital expansion project, which is estimated to cost $10 million. The City Council will also be asked to approve the budget increase at the same time.

Dodge City officials grapple with statue display

The City of Dodge is currently grappling with the issue of how to display a statue of a woman. The statue is a gift from a private donor and is intended to be placed in a public square. However, the City Council is divided on whether to accept the gift. Some council members believe that the statue is a valuable piece of art and should be displayed in a public square. Others believe that the statue is a controversial piece of art and should not be displayed in a public square.

A woman is seen with a small airplane on a grassy field. The woman is wearing a white shirt and a hat. The airplane is a small, single-engine propeller plane. The field is green and appears to be a private airfield.
