Board approves budget adjustment, begins strategic planning

Low local mill key to endorsing Diaperrock says
The City Board of Directors has approved a budget adjustment and the start of strategic planning for the City of Redlands. The board also endorsed a new local mill rate of 0.0015, which is a key factor in the city's financial future. The new mill rate is expected to generate an additional $1.5 million in revenue for the city. The board also approved a strategic planning process that will involve the community in the development of a long-term vision for the city. The process will include public hearings and the formation of a strategic planning committee. The board's decision was made by a 6-2 vote.

Former mayor Dale Reed faces 2nd DUI allegation

Redlands Police Department has filed a second DUI allegation against former Mayor Dale Reed. The allegation is based on a breathalyzer test that showed Reed had a blood alcohol concentration of 0.12 percent at the time of the incident. Reed was arrested on April 5, 2013, and is currently facing charges of driving under the influence. Reed was released on a $10,000 bail. Reed has a previous DUI conviction from 2008. The police department is investigating whether Reed was driving on a suspended license at the time of the incident.
