BE Liberal begins grassroots effort to mobilize community

Rebreat helps establish community vision statement
 By Dan O'Connell
 Rebreat is a local group of citizens from a variety of backgrounds and professions who are united by a common goal: to improve the quality of life in the community. The group was formed in 2011 and has since then been working on a variety of projects, including the establishment of a community vision statement. This statement, which was adopted at a public meeting in March, outlines the group's goals and objectives for the future. The vision statement is a key document in the group's efforts to mobilize the community and bring about positive change in the area.

Dual-language instruction may come to an end

Board contemplates whether program should continue
 By Dan O'Connell
 The Board of Education is considering whether to discontinue the dual-language instruction program at the end of the current school year. The program, which has been in place for several years, allows students to learn in both English and Spanish. However, the board is concerned about the cost of the program and whether it is truly benefiting the students. The board will hold a public hearing on the matter in the coming weeks.

City seeking volunteers to help with Easter Bunny Festival
 The City of Farmington is seeking volunteers to help with the Easter Bunny Festival. The festival is a popular event that takes place in the city park each year. Volunteers are needed to help with the setup and cleanup of the festival, as well as to assist with the activities. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact the city office.

Plains takes another step in gaining grocery store

Local business hopes to bring grocery store to the area
 A local business is planning to build a new grocery store in the Plains area. The store is expected to be completed in the next few months. This is a significant development for the area, as it will provide residents with a convenient place to shop for groceries. The new store is expected to offer a wide variety of products, including fresh produce, meat, and dairy.
