BE Liberal begins grassroots effort to mobilize community

When a local group of citizens from a variety of backgrounds gathered to discuss the future of the town, the first order of business was to establish a vision statement for the community. The group, which is now known as the BE Liberal, met last night at the town hall to discuss the future of the town. The group is composed of citizens from all walks of life, and they are working to establish a vision statement for the community. The group is currently in the process of developing a vision statement, and they are seeking input from the community.
